TASK:

A student has one month until the start of their mock exams.

The month includes 4 weekends, 3 school weeks and a half term.

They will be sitting 12 exams in total.

PAIR TASK:

 Write out a revision timetable that you think would allow the student to do as well as they can.

Extra Info:

The exams they will sit are:

Science (x3), Maths, English, History, French, Theology, Art and Business Studies.

They have a feeling that Maths and Science won't go as well as Business Studies or Art...

How much time do you have?

Work out how many revision hours you have at this point. Be realistic:

- How much is reasonable for a school day evening?
- What about the weekend?

EXAMPLE:

A student works out that at this point, they have 120 possible revision hours until the start of the exams.

In total, this student has 20 individual exam papers (topics).

This gives an average of 6 hours revision per topic examined.
